

STILL UNDER RESTRAINT

Constant and Uncertain Vibration of Prices Was Continuous.

BUT THE MARKET CLOSED HIGHER

Reopening of Wires Failed to Bring Any Considerable Volume of Orders.
Coppers Were Strong—Labor Que-tion Affects Steel and Coal.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 5.—The movement of the stock market today was still under the restraint of its professional limitations.
The day's transactions were attributed almost wholly to the trading class and the operations were not pushed beyond rather narrow limits.
Prices vibrated uncertainly and continuously. The constant response from financial markets to the variations in the tenor of news from the Balkans gives warning of the power of disturbance lying in that subject.
Today its influence was favorable.

The reopening of wire communications failed to bring in any appreciable volume of orders. The impression was thus given of a dull market.
It was the supposition of such a sagging market that prompted some renewal of the professional selling, which weakened prices again.

The bear attack was said to be directed against some of the accounts for which the prices fixed for stop loss orders had become known.

Slight speculative liquidation was induced by the dip in prices, after which another upward swing set in.

The whole market showed considerable sympathy with Reading. The labor question is looming into prominence in the steel and coal trades.
Erie still suffered from the dread that compliance will not be found possible with the requirement of the public service commission for the number of consents of bondholders to make the new issue permissible.

The sustaining point in the market was found in the copper industries.
There was professional short covering as well.

The estimates of the week's currency movement gave promise of a substantial addition to the cash holdings of the banks of the inflow from the interior.

The money market was soft in consequence. At the same time discounts were rather firmer in London foreign exchange rates rose and a further outgo of gold was made more probable. An alleged option of purchase of Kansas City Southern held by E. H. Harriman, was the assigned reason for the rise in those stocks.

At the end of the day the recovery had restored the price level to higher than at the outset and gains were general.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, $2,680,000. United States 4's coupons advanced 1/4 per cent on call.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
CHICAGO, ILL., March 5.—Wheat prices broke from 1 1/2 to 3 1/4 % on the Board of Trade today owing to the domestic liquidation based on extremely bearish domestic and foreign news. The May delivery sold off to 115 and the July option to 103 1/2, a loss of 4 1/2 and 3 1/2 cents respectively, compared with the high points for the season established two days ago.
The market closed weak at almost the bottom. Corn and oats were affected by the slump in wheat and closed weak but provisions closed firm.

DUN LOOKS FOR A BETTER TRADE CONDITIONIn Sentiment and New Business, Iron and Steel Trade Shows Some Increase.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Dun's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:
Already the price readjustments are beginning to work towards the expected improvement in demand, and this and President Taft's inaugural declarations, favorable to that "measure of stability" which "is essential to the life and growth of all business," are important contributions to financial and trade confidence and make stronger the hope of full industrial recovery. Both in sentiment and amount of new business in sight, the iron and steel trade shows some gain.

In spite of the upward tendency of raw material, buyers of cotton goods make a determined effort to secure a lower level of quotations. There is an entire absence of export demand from China, although it is believed the seller will now accept prices that were refused in January. No new business is reported in woolen goods.

Quiet conditions continue in New England shoe markets. The demand for hides continues slack with a further seasonal weakness in prices on both packer and country hides. The dry hide market is quiet. The leather trade is still dull and unsatisfactory.

ALL MEMBERS OF NEW CABINET CONFIRMED

man called attention to the facts relating to Senator Knox.

He stated, however, that he had no objection to Mr. Knox's confirmation, and as no opposition was voiced from any other direction, he was immediately confirmed.

Senate Takes Recess.
The Senate then took a recess of fifteen minutes to permit the various committees to which the other cabinet members were referred to consider and report on them.

The exception was made in Senator Knox's case out of courtesy to him as a member of the body.

The early proceedings of the Senate after it assembled at noon attracted a large crowd of spectators.
Much interest centered upon the new senators, who were in the places assigned to them for the first time.

The "Cherokee Strip" as a part of the Democratic side on the extreme right hand of the vice president is known, was rendered interesting by the location there of Senator Root, among the new senators. It is in this portion of the Senate that are located the "insurgents," the new Republican senators who are not altogether pleased with their committee assignments and who are inclined in retaliation at times, to revolt from the policies of the majority.

Senators-elect Smith, of Maryland, and Chambliss, of Oregon, both of whom were prevented from reaching the Senate in time to be sworn in yesterday, took the oath of office.

Senator Penrose stated that his colleague, Senator Knox had sent his resignation as United States senator to the governor of Pennsylvania and asked that his name be stricken from the roll of the Sixty-first Congress, having just been called by the clerk.

The vice president ordered that this should be done.
The nomination committee then waited on the President.

Pretty Nearly Correct.
Andreas Pellissari, who said he lived somewhere in Mulberry street, was arraigned in the New York children's court charged with playing ball on the street. "Don't you know it's 'Yes, sir,' sobbed Andreas. 'Don't you know that you are likely to hurt somebody? The streets don't belong to you? Now tell me, son, to whom do the streets belong?' 'De automobiles,' answered the culprit. 'Discharged,' said the judge.

Conservation.
The resources of the earth are the basis of our national wealth. By means of them alone, in material things, comes leadership among the nations.
The conservation movement now fully under way embraces the forest movement as one of its sources and great divisions. Thus the cause of forest conservation throughout the country has won a powerful ally and a more effective support for the work that lies just before us.—Gifford Pinchot in New England Magazine.

Ingenious Ponies.
A rather curious habit has been developed by Mexican ponies in connection with the cactus thorns. When these creatures are thirsty, it is said that, before attempting to put their mouths to the prickly plant, they will first of all stand and kick at the cactus with their heels. By this means the thorns are broken and the leathery skin bruised, and so the ponies can drink their fill of the cool juice without injury.—Sunday Strand.

The Want Ads Are Business Peacemakers!

In the store, the office, the factory, the work-places, the home—wherever human interests clash, wherever workers and employers come to be discordant, wherever new workers and new work are the urgent need—the road to peace lies through the want ad. columns.

In almost every case, a peace-wrecking incident of daily life needs but the simple remedy of a little want advertising—whether it is the sudden exit of the servant, stenographer, clerk, cook, roomer, tenant; or the unexpected need to quickly "raise some money."

More and more, every day, in the lives and affairs of the people of this city, the want ads. are coming to play the parts of adjusters, of vexation-preventers, of BUSINESS PEACEMAKERS!

Advertisements under classified heads will be inserted at the
